

Going Back to Leo Strauss

His students and rash admirers uphold their noble lies etc as if they're his. Similar to Christ,others,what he said gets rendered hash. My worse turn:

This administration "is excused by two facts: it does not know that it fiddles,and it does not know that Rome burns." Vacuum may have been true once,but after exhausting all else save the shrug of naked propaganda, it knows it fiddles

while our youngsters and terrorist babies get exploded. No one has clue one what to do now. So?

But ah the nobility of it all!
The vaulting,tugging ideas! Ideas!

Could you ever imagine how it is to build such complex architecture?

Takes your breath away!
Before they do it,literally, these masturbators

with their magazines.
